Welcome & Announcements Rev. Maria Campbell

Call to Worship Caden & Paxton Burt

Caden: Good morning, please join in the call to worship.

Caden: Come everyone with glad hearts to worship and praise God.

Paxton: God, we are grateful for the chance to worship and praise You.

Caden: Be thankful for God's amazing creation that is all around us.

Paxton: God, we are grateful for the skies above us and the grass below us.

Caden: Rejoice for all that God has given us.

Paxton: God, we are grateful for our many blessings.

Morning Prayer Liturgist-Ethan Gordon

Loving God, we are grateful for another day to rejoice and be glad. To remember all the ways you have blessed us. We give thanks for family, friends and neighbors who care for us during good times and bad. We give thanks for warm homes, food to eat and good schools. Help us to show our gratitude by serving You and doing what we can for those in need. Amen

Scripture Psalm 137: 6-7 Liturgist- Jack Melton

The LORD lifts up the downtrodden; he casts the wicked to the ground. Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; make melody to our God on the lyre. He covers the heavens with clouds, prepares rain for the earth, makes grass grow on the hills.

Scripture

Luke 17: 11-19

Lyla Gatza & Kevin Godwin

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean.

Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."
