Scripture Acts 10:34-43 Liturgist

Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Pastoral Prayer Rev. Maria Campbell

The Lord's Prayer

Anthem Oh, My My HUMC Quartet

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "they have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple out ran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then they returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for? " Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, " Sir, if you have carried him away tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, " Mary! " She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni !" (which means teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold onto me, because I have not yet ascend to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.' " Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

HymnCrown Him With Many Crowns#327 UMH v 1,2,4

Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne.
 Hark, how the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own.
 Awake, my soul, and sing of him who died for thee,
 And hail him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of Life, who triumphed o'er the grave,
 And rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save.
 His glories now we sing, who died, and rose on high,
 Who died, eternal life to bring and lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of love, behold his hands and side,
 Those wounds yet visible above, in beauty glorified.
 All hail, Redeemer hail! For thou hast died for me;
 Thy praise and glory shall not fail throughout eternity.
