Children's Moment Susie Bond

Morning Prayer Liturgist

We come to this time of worship with joy and thanksgiving, O God. We thank you for our many blessings and the people that you have placed in our lives. Help us to live with hope as we continue to encounter uncertainty. Open our ears and our hearts to your Word and our minds to embrace its meaning. Amen.

Scripture Psalm 145: 8-18 Liturgist

The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The Lord is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made. All your works shall give thanks to you, O Lord, and all your faithful shall bless you. They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom, and tell of your power, to make known to all people your mighty deeds, and the glorious splendour of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations. The Lord is faithful in all his words, and gracious in all his deeds. The Lord upholds all who are falling, and raises up all who are bowed down. The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season. You open your hand, satisfying the desire of every living thing. The Lord is just in all his ways, and kind in all his doings. The Lord is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

Pastoral Prayer Jamison Baiza

The Lord's Prayer

Anthem	Angels Watching Over Me	HUMC Quartet
Scripture	James 5: 1-6	Jamison Baiza
	Come now, you rich people, weep and wail for the miseries that are coming to you. Your riches have rotted, and your clothes are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will be evidence against you, and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure for the last days. Listen! The wages of the labourers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts on a day of slaughter. You have condemned and murdered the righteous one, who does not resist you.
