Prelude	Jenny Memmott
Welcome & Announcements	Rev. Maria Campbell
Hymn of Praise	All Creatures of Our God and King #62 UMH vs 1,4,5
Children's Moment	Rev. Maria Campbell
Morning Prayer	Liturgist-Daryl Davis

Good and gracious God, we thank you for the many blessings that you give us. Help us to see the wonders that fill our world and choose to be good stewards of it. Guide our words and our actions so that we are generous with others as you are with us. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Scripture	Psalm 37: 18-24	Liturgist— Daryl Davis
-----------	-----------------	------------------------

The Lord knows the days of the blameless, and their heritage will abide for ever; they are not put to shame in evil times, in the days of famine they have abundance. But the wicked perish, and the enemies of the Lord are like the glory of the pastures; they vanish—like smoke they vanish away. The wicked borrow, and do not pay back, but the righteous are generous and keep giving; for those blessed by the Lord shall inherit the land, but those cursed by him shall be cut off. Our steps are made firm by the Lord, when he delights in our way; though we stumble, we shall not fall headlong, for the Lord holds us by the hand.

The Lord's Prayer

Anthem	Grateful
--------	-----------------

Scripture	2 Corinthians 8:1-14	Rev. Maria Campbell
-----------	----------------------	---------------------

We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that has been granted to the churches of Macedonia; for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means, begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the saints— and this, not merely as we expected; they gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us, so that we might urge Titus that, as he had already made a beginning, so he should also complete this generous undertaking among you. Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance.
