Remembrance of the Saints

Scripture

Psalm 145: 1-5, 17-21

Liturgist—BJ Clark

I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever. Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall laud your works to another and shall declare your mighty acts. On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate. The Lord is just in all his ways, and kind in all his doings. The Lord is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

He fulfills the desire of all who fear him; he also hears their cry and saves them. The Lord watches over all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy. My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord, and all flesh will bless his holy name forever and ever.

Pastoral Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Rev. Maria Campbell

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture

Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally, the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her." Jesus said to them, "Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed, they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive."

When the Saints Go Marching In

Oh when the saints go marching in
Oh when the saints go marching in
Lord how I want to be in that number
Oh when the saints go marching in

And when the sun refuse to shine
and when the sun refuse to shine
Lord how I want to be in that number
Oh when the sun refuse to shine

Oh when the saints go marching in
Oh when the saints go marching in
Lord how I want to be in that number
Oh when the saints go marching in

*We give you thanks, O God, for all the saints who ever worshiped you, whether in arbors or cathedrals,
wooden churches or cement meeting houses.*

*We give you thanks, O God, for hands lifted in praise:
manicured hands and hands stained with grease or soil,
strong hands and hands gnarled with age, holy hands.*

*We thank you, God, for hardworking saints,
whether hard-hatted or aproned,
blue-collared or three-piece-suited.*

They left their mark for you, for us, for our children to come.

Thank you for the sacrifices made by those who have gone before us.

Bless the memories of your saints.

May we learn how to walk wisely from their examples of faith, dedication, worship, and love.
